Payments & prepayment privileges

Although no regular payments are required until the reverse mortgage comes due, clients have the benefit of prepayment privileges so they can prepay the principal or interest without being subject to a prepayment charge.²

¹ Subject to borrowers meeting their mortgage obligations. Must keep property taxes and home insurance paid and current, maintain property, and keep current all mortgage obligations. Excludes any fees and interest accrued after mortgage due date.

² Certain conditions must be met.

Prepayment charge

If a borrower decides to pay off their reverse mortgage early, we offer a competitive prepayment structure.

- 5/4/3 months' interest in years 1/2/3, respectively
- 3 months' interest in years 4-10
- No charge on year 11 onwards
- Note: years 6 onwards, prepay entire balance with no charge with 3 months' written notice

Mortgage due date

The Equitable Bank Reverse Mortgage is due on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- Sale or transfer of the property
- When the last borrower moves into a long-term care or retirement residence
- When the last borrower passes away
- Default

Property tax & insurance

Must keep paid and current (can be paid out of mortgage proceeds).

Credit score

No minimum credit score required.

Debt servicing

Required—applicants must show the ability to maintain key property expenses, such as property tax, heating, fire insurance policy, and condo fees, if applicable.

Portable

Yes, provided the new property meets the lending criteria.

Amortization

None.

Documents required

- Copy of two valid pieces of ID (one photo) confirming name, date of birth, and address
- Property Tax bill
- Power of attorney form & questionnaire
